2020 Garden Media Trends Report

Jennifer Polanz

Every year, industry public relations firm Garden Media Group releases its Garden Trends Report to make its predictions about what will be in the public zeitgeist in the coming year. The new report for 2020 is available now free for download and includes tips for capitalizing on trends like houseplants, green industry jobs, improving soil health and more. You can find it at www.gardenmediagroup.com.
