Pets On The Payroll

Jennifer Polanz

Meet Mr. H.D. Kitty, head of pest control (and a sometimes cashier when the place is short-staffed) at Mill Pond Gardens in Brooks, Georgia.

“Since his arrival, we no longer have squirrels chewing on pumpkins and [he] says he will soon do something about the deer, when he has time,” writes in Robin Porter. “We love to hear folks say ‘We just came to see the cat.’ He certainly is a Handsome Devil, living up to his name.”

He certainly is—thanks, Robin! GP
