Shop an Expanded Casual Market Atlanta

Jennifer Polanz

Registration is now open for two Casual Market Atlanta experiences—one July 21-23 and the other September 15-18 at AmericasMart in Atlanta. There you'll find more than 150 permanent showrooms and temporary exhibits, offering a wide selection for casual furniture and outdoor living. New this year is the Outdoor Living Expo, the renamed temporary exhibits featuring expanded floors showing everything from furniture and shade to fire fixtures, lighting, accessories and more.

There will also be a mix of education, networking and industry event in partnership with the International Casual Furnishings Association. Also, during the July market, the garden and outdoor collection in Building 2, Floor 9 that's typically the target of most garden retailers will be open for a limited time on July 22. The September market will run concurrently with the Atlanta Fall Market. Find out more at casualmarketatlanta.com. GP

The Berkeley collection, new from Castelle, is one of many new introductions you'll see at Casual Market Atlanta.
