Stephanie Whitehouse Joins Dickman Farms

Jennifer Polanz

Many in the industry know Stephanie Whitehouse from her seven years as sales and marketing director for organic grower to the independents Peace Tree Farms in Kintnersville, Pennsylvania. As of January, she has returned to her home area of the Finger Lakes to join the team at Dickman Farms Greenhouses & Garden Center as the retail general manager.

“Stephanie brings a wealth of industry and horticulture knowledge to her new position and a passion for connecting plants with people,” says Owner Dave Dickman. “We are fortunate indeed that her move back to the area in which she grew up offers us the opportunity to collaborate in the growth and expansion of our retail business.”

Dickman Farms Greenhouse & Garden Center is a fifth-generation business in Auburn, New York. GP
