Hummert's Grand Expo

Jennifer Polanz

It was too late to get this in our Hort Calendar, so we're telling you about it here. Hummert International will host its Hummert Grand Expo on August 24 at the St. Charles Convention Center in St. Charles, Missouri. The show highlights the company's offerings of horticultural supplies across a wide range of industry segments, including greenhouse, nursery, garden center, landscape, research and athletics. Find out more at www.hummertextpo.com or call (800) 325-3055. GP
